STATE CAPITAL SPREAD.

The employees entertained by the Proprietor.

The employee of the State Capital Publishing company enjoyed the hospitality of the proprietor, Mr. Frank J. Stone, on last Monday night. An elaborate banquet was served at the Capital hotel, where they gathered and while roasting and toasting, watched the passing of the Nineteenth century.

J. P. Wilson, the firm's traveling representative was toast master. A number of friends of the employee were present.

MEMBERS OF SIXTH ASSEMBLY

Senators Felix L. Winter, Kingfisher, Eighth District.

Col. L. Winkler was born June 1, 1851 in White county, Illinois. He moved to Missouri in childhood. He served as a private in Co. G. Fifteenth Missouri volunteers, in 1864-65. He was graduated in medicine in 1873 and 1875 and moved to Oklahoma in 1885. He was elected to territorial council in 1888 and 1890. Senator Winkler made a good record in 1890. He is a straightforward, energetic and patriotic citizen and is closely identified with the best interests of Oklahoma.

His Wife Saved Him.

My wife's good advice saved my life when F. M. Ross of Wadsworth, Tenn., had such a bad cough could hardly breathe. I steadily grew worse under doctor's treatment, but my wife urged me to use Dr. Kling's New Discovery for Consumption, which completely cured me. Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, La Grippe, Pneumonia, Asthma, Hay Fever and all maladies of Chest, Throat and Lungs are quickly cured by this marvelous medicine. One, six, and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed. Trial bottles free at C. R. Hartwig's drug store.

Col. John T. Bradley, of Kingfisher is attending the supreme court.
